

A SOFTWARE SOLUTION IS EXPECTED SOON
Ms Virtual PC does not directly support USB devices. However, if your HOST has found your USB Storage device, you can add it as a Shared Folder in the VM Settings.
First plug in your device and check that it has	been properly recognised by the HOST.
Lauren (n. 10) (ba ber	Start the Virtual Machine
Setting Current Value File Name 25 PSP [Rose Minimary 250 PB Minimary 110 Sec Singled Minimary 250 PB Minimary 250 PB Minimary 250 PB Minimary 110 Sec Singled Minimary 250 PB Minimary 250 PB Minimary 250 PB Minimary 250 PB Min	Open the Settings window From the Edit Menu select Settings or Press Right Alt + E Click on the Setting for Shared Folders The Z: drive should already be allocated to C:\Hosts Shared Folders Click on Share Folder
Browse for Folder Image: Constraint of the system Please select a folder to share Image: Constraint of the system Image: Constraint of the system <td< td=""><td>The Browse window opens Click on the USB Storage device you want to select it A Drive letter will be allocated to it. Drive letter Y Y Do not tick the box Share every time Click OK</td></td<>	The Browse window opens Click on the USB Storage device you want to select it A Drive letter will be allocated to it. Drive letter Y Y Do not tick the box Share every time Click OK
Settings for XP SP3 Base Setting Current Value IF Re Name 2F SP3 Base Memory 250 MB Memory 250 MB Hand Daki 1 2F SP3 Base whide Hand Daki 2 None Linda Daki 3 Disabled O(DVD Drive Secondary conholier COULD Drive Secondary conholier Stated Folders Disabled None Daking Hordwork Wouldstation Not avoidstate on the physical conquere a shared folder to access Maxe Dashes theored Policy Object Shown ressage Enderstate consuse a shared folder to access Close Shown ressage Enderstate consuse a shared folder to access	The new Shared folder is added to the list and marked as a Temporary Share Folder Drive H:\ Y* C:\Host Shared Folders Z Click OK You can now use it like any other drive